MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Support

SUBJECT : Communications Link Between CIA and [] - Memorandum of Understanding

1. This memorandum contains a recommendation for your approval. Such recommendation is contained in paragraph 4.

2. You are familiar with our plans, which you approved, to install an encrypted telecommunications link between this Office and []

We have now reached the point where it appears logical and proper to formalize negotiations with [] and the Agency, and the

[] has prepared and signed the attached "Memorandum of Understanding". After signature, the original will be forwarded to [] and a copy will be retained by this Office. The Office of Communications, which is planning the installation, has reviewed a draft copy of the Memorandum of Understanding and concurs. Further, the Office of the General Counsel has reviewed the Memorandum and sees no objection in it as written.

3. We propose to confer with the [] [] as to the period of time which the test system will run. At the end of that time, the agreement would be terminated or revised.

Since he has worked so hard with us in achieving this progressive step in automatic data processing, we would like to forward the signed original to him prior to his departure. It is recommended

Charlie:

This bears on our conversation yesterday. Attached are self explanatory comments by the CI Staff Machine Records Officer. I see no reason to rewrite his note to me. I am in agreement with his suggestions and pass them along for your consideration.
